

Who supports my child in school?

Class Teacher:

- Teaches good or outstanding lessons for all children.
- Adapts teaching and learning for children with SEND.
- Checks on your child's progress.
- Plans and delivers extra help for your child.
- Sets and reviews individual targets.
- Makes sure everyone working with your child knows their needs and how to help them.

Contact by: Speaking to them at the end of the day.

SENCO (Special Educational Needs Coordinator):

- Organises support for children with SEND.
- Checks that children with SEND get consistent, quality support.
- Makes sure families are kept informed and involved in planning support.
- Contacts and makes referrals to outside agencies (see External Support page).
- Keeps and updates records of children with SEND.
- Supports school staff and organises training in meeting SEND.
- Prepares for an EHCP where needed.

Contact by: visiting or calling the school office, email: info@oasisjohanna.org

Principal:

- Runs the school day-to-day, including support for children with SEND.
- Expects the Class Teacher and SENCO to manage support but checks that this is happening.
- Makes sure that the Academy Council (governors) are kept up to date about all SEND issues in the school.

SEND Academy Councillor:

- Makes sure the school's SEND information is up to date.
- Makes sure the school has the right support and is using funding appropriately.
- Visits the school to monitor SEND provision.
- Contacts the SENCO regularly to discuss current issues.

Contact by: sending a letter via the school office.

Teaching Assistant (TA):

- Delivers specific support, 1:1 and group work as instructed by the Class Teacher, SENCO and outside professionals.
- Feeds back to the Class Teacher about your child's progress in intervention groups.

Contact: Although the TA might work with your child a lot, the Class Teacher will plan your child's learning. Please contact the Class Teacher or SENCO about your child's needs.

Oasis Hub:

- Offers community services to complement the school's provision.
- Runs a toddler group, Hullabaloo, which is based at Johanna on Tuesday mornings. If your child is below school age and is likely to attend Johanna, you can meet our families and staff at these sessions.
- The Debt Advice Clinic and Foodbank are available at the hub for families who are struggling financially.

Contact by: visiting the Oasis Hub, coming along to the activities or asking at the school office.
